PUT OFF A WEEK.
Postponement of the Old Settlers' Reunion Because of the Rain.
Monday was a weather-breeder, but not sultry, and this morning early steady rain began falling, which has continued all day. It was planned to hold the annual reunion of the Macon County Old Settlers' Association at King's Orchard today, and extensive preparations had been made for the occasion by the various committees; but the rain has knocked out all the plans. The officers got together this forenoon and decided to postpone the reunion one week—until Tuesday, September 2—when the program as arranged will be observed at King's Orchard. All old settlers and the public generally will bear in mind the day, date and place and be present.
Ex-Gov. Oglesby arrived in the city last evening to deliver the address to-day, but instead of performing that service for the sake of old times, he has been about the city personally greeting old friends. He cannot be present next Tuesday. Another speaker will be secured if possible.
Will Attend the Post Meeting.
Ex-Gov. R. J. Oglesby, who is a member of Dunham Post, 141, will meet with the comrades at the Grand Army Post meeting to-night, and of course he will give them a rattling good speech. The members will turn out to a man and give the old hero a cordial welcome.
Commenced Work.
This morning the contractors began the work of grading and graveling the Maffi road from the end of South Webster street to the bridge. Next the grading of the road north of the city will be completed, and then the Wilcox bridge road will be gravelled. With fair weather the entire contract, something over two miles in extent, will be completed by October 1st.

Mr. Flynn will put in a new and complete stock of goods. He has a general store at Macon, and like everybody else who has good judgment, he believes Decatur is the place for business the year 'round. He is right.

LOCAL NEWS.

B. Z. TAYLOR insists that the month of August has been his personal hoodoo for 15 years. If anything ever goes wrong with him it is invariably in August. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Taylor and W. F. Shale rode down to the Broadway sewer in Eli Brenneke's road wagon. The horse was hitched near the T. L. Hays residence. When the two gentlemen returned they discovered that the horse had broken away from the post and gone pell-mell back to the barn. On the way the wagon collided with the Archer wagon and the rig was partly wrecked. It had to be put in the shop for repairs and of course Bon will have to stand part of the expense.
Keene as Richard III.
The formal opening of the amusement season in this city will be the appearance of that gifted tragedian, Mr. Thomas W. Keene, and his excellent company of players, which includes such well known artists as Miss Henrietta Vaders, Levin Shannon, Mrs. Baker, Jennie Ellisor, Mr. George Leacock, Frank Hennig, Eugene Moore, Carl Scott, and others of equal merit. The play selected is Richard III, in which character it is universally conceded Mr. Keene has no equal. The sale of seats begins Thursday morning at the Grand Opera House. For prices see advertisement.

A State Candidate in Town.
Hon. Ed S. Wilson, of Olney, the Democratic nominee for state treasurer, who thinks he is going to defeat the Republican nominee, Hon. Franz Amberg, was in Decatur several hours to-day, swinging around the city, talking with the local Bourbon bosses. He spent an hour after dinner with John Lindsay, trying to square himself with that self-appointed champion of all the ills in Macon county. How well he succeeded may never be known. Mr. Wilson left for Springfield this afternoon. He is looked to speak at Pawnee, Ill., and will be in Decatur on Sept. 3.

THAT $10 COUNTERFEIT BILL.
A. Came from Buffalo, Hart, Illinois, by American Express.

W. C. Ellemann, the moulder at Loebe's foundry, who discovered yesterday that he had a counterfeit $10 bill on the Germania National Bank of New Orleans, La., in his possession, has since ascertained that he did not receive it in payment for wages at a foundry office, and therefore it did not pass through the firm's hands. It is learned that on Aug. 9th, Emil Young and Mr. Ellemann sold poultry to a Buffalo Hart man, the bill amounting to $31. On August 15th, Young and Ellemann received $31 by American Express, C. O. D., from the purchaser, and in Mr. Ellemann's hands was the counterfeit $10 bill. It had been kept with other money at Ellemann's home by his wife, and no one thought it was a spurious bill. It was left to J. A. McIlwether to make the discovery. That the bill came through the express office is proven by the needle hole in the counterfeiter. Mr. Young will take the bill to Buffalo and see the man who sent it here by express. It will doubtless be redeemed by that gentleman. Perhaps he will remember where he got it.
The Republican makes this statement in justice to the Loebe foundry and Mr. Ellemann, the latter wishing only the facts to be given to the public.

GONE TO JAIL.
Charles E. Johns Held to Answer for Assaulting Mrs. Julia Foster.
The preliminary examination of Charles E. Johns, arrested on a charge of having originally assaulted Mrs. Julia Foster, west of Decatur, on the afternoon of July 21, terminated in Justice Foster's court at noon to-day, when the Justice stated that the evidence warranted him in holding the defendant to answer the action of the grand jury at the September term of court. Bail was fixed at $300, in default of which Johns was committed to the county jail.

The evidence was heard yesterday afternoon, and this morning the arguments were made by State Attorney Mills for the people and by Attorney Lee and Gray for the defendant. The action of the Squire was based chiefly on the positive identification of the defendant as the assailant by the woman.
Mrs. Julia Foster when put on the stand identified Johns as the man who had assaulted her; she was positive that he is the guilty man. Mrs. Sheehan thought he looked like the man she saw running away from the house down the road that afternoon. James Johnson, employed at the Bundy mill, two miles distant from the Foster home, testified that he was working with Johns that day in the timber cutting saw-logs, and that after the dinner hour Johns was absent about 15 minutes. Other witnesses testified that Johns was absent until after Hilton came back, and the prosecution showed that it was after two o'clock when Hilton returned. The evidence, with the exception of that of Mrs. Foster, was of a very contradictory character.

YESTERDAY afternoon H. S. Lane, who hails from Bloomington, caused a disturbance at the John Dipper saloon by claiming that somebody had stolen a watch from his drunken brother-in-law, George Franklin. He kicked up such a row that the police were summoned, and Officers Williamson and Bailey brought Lane to "Square Court's" office, where Officer Barrett led Franklin, who was severely able to stand. Lane became sassy at the Squire's office, whereupon the policemen undertook to put him in jail. Lane fought right and left, but when the tippers were put on him he had to walk alone. Both Williamson and Bailey had all they could do for awhile to overpower the man from Bloomington. It is said that it was Lane who took the watch from Franklin, and that he was simply making a grand bluff at the saloon when arrested. Franklin states that he will not prosecute Lane, but the officers may force him to do so.

D., of Akron, Ohio, who on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock will deliver his inimitable lecture on his travels through Bible lands. He will also, at some period of the meeting, deliver an address on the lamented division of the U. B. church, the cause and probable results. Ministers of our sister churches are invited to attend. The members of the U. B. church of Decatur, who remain with the Old-line church, are requested to be at the meeting on Saturday afternoon. Admission free.
W. W. KNEPPE, P. E.

A Wash freight was standing on the railroad crossing at this point and the Central train coming along about this time struck the Wash freight and derailed two loaded cars.

A most brutal murder was committed near Jerseyville Saturday. With no apparent provocation while attending a dance a man by the name of Rogers was knocked down by one who made brass knuckles and while unconscious was deliberately shot by Alexander Shaw.
